YEARBOOK

PRINT • ONLINE

OPENING UP THE WORLD OF THE PERFORMING ARTS

The 26th edition of the Performing Arts Yearbooks (PAY) will be published in June 2018.

Completely revised each year – and with over 1,300 pages of entries from 65 countries – the Performing Arts Yearbooks are comprehensive guides to performing arts organisations in Europe, the Asia-Pacific region and North America, and vital reference sources for all those involved with the performing arts.

Now fully searchable online at artsdb.net, the PAY database is the quickest, easiest and most authoritative way to access the performing arts industry's vital information.

Advertising in the Performing Arts Yearbooks ensures your organisation will be seen for 12 months of the year by the people responsible for booking artists, heading organisations and managing venues..

When I need to know what the correct address or email really is (or, for that matter, any other piece of information) I turn to PAY for the answer.

INTERNATIONAL TCHAIKOVSKY COMPETITION

WHY YOU SHOULD ADVERTISE

PAY is sold in more than 65 countries worldwide

8,000 copies of the directories are distributed to paid subscribers and to our controlled circulation at international conferences and events

The online version of the yearbook is accessed at artsdb.net every month by thousands of unique visitors

Purchasers of the yearbooks and online subscribers are directors and executives of:

- concert venues, theatres and opera houses
- artist management
- festivals and competitions
- promotion and production
- ballet and opera companies
- the world's leading orchestras
- suppliers of services to the performing arts business
- arts funding bodies
- education organisations
- television and radio broadcasters
- music, dance and theatre information centres

PAY gives my office the information we need. The listings, the advertisements and the index of all editorial entries in the print version, and the search facilities are extremely useful. I use the book all the time.

JAY HOFFMAN, PRESIDENT, JAY K HOFFMAN & ASSOCIATES

THE FULLEST AND MOST UP-TO-DATE INFORMATION AVAILABLE

The print versions contain comprehensive indexes which allow you to search all the advertisements and editorial content quickly and easily.

There are more than 24,000 entries in the Performing Arts Yearbooks, from addresses and phone numbers, to senior staff and company size.

The directories include comprehensive and up-to-date listings, ensuring that readers have trusted and accurate information at their fingertips. Listings are divided into the following sections for easy reference:

- agents, promoters and producers
- arts administration and management courses
- choirs and vocal ensembles
- competitions
- conferences and trade shows
- dance

- drama
- early music ensembles
- festivals
- further education
- national and regional ministries of culture and funding agencies
- national organisations and resource centres
- opera
- orchestras
- products and services
- publications
- recorded media
- TV and radio companies
- venues

In addition, the content can be searched in even greater detail online, by taking advantage of the various search functions and keyword facilities.

‘The Performing Arts Yearbooks both do what they say – they are definitive and indispensable in planning the Hallé’s schedules at home and abroad. The editorial listings are very reliable and well laid-out
